Arriving in Port au Prince: Airport Instructions

We will schedule one of our drivers to pick you up at the airport.

You will exit the plane and walk down a corridor and downstairs to the baggage claim area. There are a few things to be aware of in navigating the process of getting your luggage and exiting the airport;

There will be luggage carts available to rent for $2 each. You can stack 3-4 big bags on each one. There are luggage rounders from which your bags come out from the airplane. However, airport employees may come up to you and ask for your baggage ticket, take your ticket and go and find your bag for you. You do not have to give them your baggage ticket.

You'll need to show your baggage ticket to the airport employee at the exit door in order to exit the hanger. You may be stopped and asked to open your luggage by a customs agent. If questioned explain that the supplies are for relief aid. Cross to Light is fully approved as an official NGO in Haiti and is allowed to bring in relief aid. None of the supplies we bring in are ever sold. To further assist the customs process and our own inventory method it is best if you bring a list of supplies that you are bringing in case the customs agent asks about the supplies and to give to the supply coordinator when arriving at the BTC. You don't need to give this list to the customs agent unless you are stopped and asked about your supplies and they want more information.

If you are missing a bag be prepared. Take your baggage ticket to the counter and have the airport employee enter it in the computer. It most likely will be on the next plane. Sometimes airport "helpers" will try to tell you to pay them in order to get your bags found but there is no reason for this and it will not expedite your delayed baggage.

When you exit the baggage area you'll enter the exit corridor. Outside you'll see drivers waiting. One of our staff will be holding a "Cross to Light" sign or have a Cross to Light land yard on. They will help you load the luggage. Our vehicles are listed above. Once your luggage is loaded you can sit back and enjoy the excursion to the Bible Training Center.

Emergency

If for some reason you do not find our driver, go back inside the airport to wait. If you have a phone configured for Haiti calling please call the listed numbers. If you don't, there is a kiosk inside the airport where you can purchase a Digicel Haitian phone. You can also ask the airport for a phone. Start by calling Watson. If you are not able to connect, wait and try again in 15 minutes. There are "tap tap's" (taxis) available at the airport as a last option. Give them the address of the Training Center and tell them it is in "Delmas 75".
